CertIFR – ACCA

Certificate in International
Financial Reporting

Face to Face/Virtual Instructor-Led Training

COURSE SUMMARY

The Certificate in International Financial Reporting (CertIFR), awarded by ACCA, is an internationally recognised qualification designed to introduce finance professionals to the principles and practical application of IFRS Accounting Standards.

Ideal for accountants, auditors, finance professionals, and business managers, the programme provides a strong foundation in the International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS) framework and their application in preparing and interpreting financial statements. It serves as an excellent starting point for professionals who require a practical understanding of IFRS before progressing to advanced qualifications such as the Diploma in International Financial Reporting (DipIFR).

The programme develops essential knowledge of IFRS recognition and measurement principles, financial statement presentation, disclosure requirements, and financial reporting interpretation, enabling participants to confidently apply international accounting standards in today's global business environment.
